Dear Mr. C. — Do you have any influence in show business? If so, do me and the public a favor and get Carol Burnett and Imogene Coca cast together. Caught Carol at the Sands Hotel and she would make a good partner for Imogene. Is Imogene slipping away, haven't seen her. Please print this to see what the public has to say. — Mrs. M.L.E., Las Vegas.

Dear Mrs. M.L.E.: Hope you won't be disappointed when I tell you Carol Burnett's career is sailing along with her personal appearance at the Greek Theatre in Los Angeles and her next TV special going into rehearsals after that. And Imogene is far from slipping. Watch for her in her new TV series, "It's About Time" wherein she plays a wacky cave woman.

Dear Mike: Whatever became of Eric Fleming? We miss "Rawhide" and hope he will return. — Mrs. J.A.G., Burlingame.

Dear Mrs. J.A.G.: Eric won't be returning to "Rawhide" but you can see him in Doris Day's new film, "Glass Bottom Boat."

Dear Mike: Would you be a luv and tell us where to write to the Rank Organization? We want them to re-lease all of David McCallum's early movies. Would that be asking too much? L.G. & S.W., Pebble Beach.

Dear L.G. & S.W.: No, it's not asking too much at all. Please write to: J. Arthur Rank Organization, London, England. It's so well-known, no street address is required. And best of luck.

Dear Mike: I am crazy about the "Man from U.N.C.L.E." and I would like to know in what general area the shows are filmed. I also need the life history of Robert Vaughn for my scrapbooks. — K.W., Corrigan, Tex.

Dear K.W.: All the "U.N.C.L.E." shows have been filmed on the many back lots of the famous Metro studios. They have streets and buildings of every part of the world—all within walking distance of one another. Please write to: Robert Vaughn, Screen Actors Guild, 7045 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood 46, Calif.

Dear Mike: We read about the 22-year-old mother who felt she was regressing to her childhood because of her feelings about a vocalist. This should make her feel good. We are 29 and 31 and mad about Sergio Franchi. Will he be appearing in New York City soon? F.L. & P.L., Camillus, N.Y.

Dear F.L. & P.L.: Please write to Sergio in care of Villa Del Rey, 8225 Fountain Ave., Hollywood 46, Calif. He will be appearing in New York in November. This address should be able to help.

Dear Mr. Connolly: I have been a fan of Dick Van Dyke's for many years. I have read he will make many movies. Can you tell me which ones they will be? S.O.C., San Francisco.

Dear S.O.C.: Dick has formed his own company and will co-produce with other companies in Hollywood. On his schedule are "Garden of Cucumbers."

Carson Street Project Ready

The south side of Carson Street west of Figueroa Street will soon be improved by county crews. Work will consist of constructing curb, gutter, drive-ways and asphalt concrete pavement to complete the full improvement of Carson between Figueroa Street and Normandie Avenue.

In Senate Race CDC Hears Demand That Dills Disqualify Self

Demands that Judge Ralph Dills, Democratic nominee for the State Senate in the 32nd Senate District, disqualify himself were voiced over the weekend at a meeting of the 68th Assembly District of the Council of Democratic Clubs (CDC).
Joe Bruno, co-chairman of the California Citizens' Committee for Honest Government and himself a candidate for the Senate in last June's primary, demanded Dills' resignation and asked that Harold W. Garvin, runner up in the primary, be given the nomination.
Bruno, who is not a member of the CDC council, charged that Judge Dills is not a legal resident of the district which he seeks to represent in the State Senate.
"As a man who passes judgement on others, and whose job it is to uphold the law, to disqualify yourself is the honorable thing to do," Bruno told Dills.
Bruno said the law requires that a candidate live in the district in which he seeks public office for at least a year prior to the general election. He said Dills cannot meet that requirement.
Citing a case in which the courts refused to disqualify a candidate, Dills said the legislature can pass on the eligibility of its members. Such a decision can be made only after a candidate has been elected, he added.
